THE REVIVAL OF AN INSTITUTION

LA BASTIDE BOURRELLY, FORMERLY “AUBERGE”, WAS THE BEATING HEART OF THIS PROVENÇAL VILLAGE FOR ALMOST 200 YEARS. A WARM AND LIVELY PLACE WHERE LOCALS AND VISITORS USED TO MEET.

IT IS REBORN TODAY THANKS TO MATHIAS DANDINE, CHEF OWNER OF LA MAGDELEINE AND HIS FRIEND SERGE PEROTTINO, REAL ESTATE AND HOTELIER DEVELOPER.

THESE TWO LOCALS, PASSIONATE ABOUT THEIR REGION, HAVE PRESERVED THE AUTHENTICITY AND CONVIVIALITY OF THE BASTIDE THROUGHOUT THE RENOVATION.

MATHIAS DANDINE

A man with grey hair and a mustache, wearing a white chef's coat, is smiling and leaning against the trunk of a large tree. He is holding a pair of glasses in his hands. The background is filled with green foliage and branches, suggesting an outdoor setting. The lighting is bright and natural, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.
